Envision Networks® Producer Steve Warren Receives Honor From CMA The Country Oldies Show Host Celebrates 50 Years in Radio

(APRIL 2014) – Steve Warren, host of Envision Networks® The Country Oldies Show, has received an award from The Country Music Association to honor him for 50 years in radio.

“I was quite surprised and delighted to receive this honor from the CMA,” said Steve Warren. “When I was about 5 years old, our next door neighbor had a loud radio in his windowsill playing Kitty Wells, Ernest Tubb, Hank Williams and other country favorites for the whole neighborhood to hear. Little did I know that I’d be spending most of my professional life doing the same thing but from the other side of the radio.”

Started in 1994, The Country Oldies Show is America’s longest running weekly radio program featuring the greatest country hits from the 1950s to the 1980s. Host Steve Warren has been a radio personality, program director, and radio consultant for over 50 years, at legendary radio stations including WTMT, Louisville; WIRE Indianapolis; WPTR, Albany; and WHN, WNBC, WKHK, WYNY, and Sirius in New York. He is also occasionally a featured actor on TV & films as well as public speaker and author of RADIO: The Book.
