The 100 Greatest
Christmas
Hits Of All Time
with Wink Martindale

Christmas Comes Early...Don't Be Left Out In The Cold!
Envision Networks® Offering New Holiday Countdown For 2014

(OCTOBER 2014) – Envision Networks® is already in the holiday spirit this year with The 100 Greatest Christmas Hits of All Time, the award-winning ten-hour radio special hosted by beloved TV game show host Wink Martindale. Available on a cash basis, this holiday programming will count down everyone's favorite Yuletide hits from 100 to number one.

Updated to include music from this past year, The 100 Greatest Christmas Hits of All Time is based on data compiled by Billboard Magazine and listings of the Christmas tracks most played on radio over the past decade. This compilation includes hit singles as well as classic tracks from the most-loved and best-selling Christmas albums of all time.

Every form of Yuletide music is part of this special, from the goodtime gold ("Holly Jolly Christmas"), the sentimental songs ("I'll Be Home For Christmas"), and the deeply romantic ("Merry Christmas Darling") to the beloved carols ("Silent Night") and the Santa/Rudolph/Frosty fantasy favorites ("Santa Claus is Coming to Town"). There are million-sellers and more galore – spanning the years from 1942 (Bing Crosby's "White Christmas") to today ("Do You Want To Build A Snowman?" from Disney's Frozen). It may be winter outside, but you'll find over these ten unforgettable hours the heartfelt warmth, fun and frolic of the most beloved season of them all. It's a portrait in sound of your favorite music, magic and memories.

Filling out each hour is a handful of "bonus tracks" – other beloved Yuletide gems guaranteed to make you laugh, move your heart and rekindle your life's fondest memories. Wink Martindale supplies the story and fun facts throughout the 10-hour broadcast.
