Envision Networks® Launches VirtualVoiceBank
Now Offering Expansive Selection Of Commercial Production Voices

(OCTOBER 2014) – Envision Networks® is proud to announce the launch of VirtualVoiceBank, a new comprehensive resource for radio commercial production. Available on a barter basis, VirtualVoiceBank offers unlimited access to spot voiceovers for radio commercials in English or Spanish.

“The ongoing success of SpotVO and conversations with radio stations made us realize that there is a definite need in the marketplace for a service offering top voiceover talent for barter,” says President and CEO of Envision Networks® Danno Wolkoff. “We’ve developed VirtualVoiceBank as an answer to those needs, offering a service that is truly turn-key with over 30 voice talents available to read commercial copy with less than 24 hour turnaround time.”

VirtualVoiceBank showcases some of the best voice talent in the industry. With stations facing the challenge of doing more with less, this resource allows them to raise the quality of their commercial production and add new voices to their stations without breaking their budget.

For stations in need of voiceover work, VirtualVoiceBank offers unlimited use of top voice talent. Simply submit your copy and choose a voice. You will receive a professional quality voiceover the very next day.

If you’re looking for more than just a voiceover, there are commercial production options available. All you have to do is select a script from our library or submit one of your own, select a voice and then choose a music bed to suit your format. The next day you will receive a fully produced spot.
